

I wanted to protest the attempt by The Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) in Indiana to bypass the Indiana Do Not Call List. If successful, anybody that you currently have a business relationship with (e.g., your bank, credit card company, long distance carrier) will be able to call you as often as they want. Over an eighteen month period, that could translate to over 800,000,000 more unwanted phone calls to Indiana residents.